

2025/11/25

Speech of the Palestinian Communist Party

“The Timely Messages of the October Revolution in Our Contemporary Struggle for Socialism under Conditions of Imperialist War”

Dear comrades,
Revolutionary Bolshevik greetings,
I bring you warm and fraternal salutations from the Party of the Palestinian Working Class — the Palestinian Communist Party, which today is engaged in a struggle for survival and steadfastness under the harshest conditions, amid the ongoing aggression against our people in Gaza — that small, besieged strip of land which the imperialist–Zionist enemy seeks to slaughter from vein to vein, yet remains alive, steadfast, and unbowed, raising the banner of resistance in the face of the new fascism.

What our people in Palestine are enduring today is one of the most brutal forms of imperialist war, aimed at altering the demographic reality of historic Palestine through killing, uprooting, and forced displacement. More than one million Palestinians have been slaughtered or driven from their homes — just as happened in 1948. Today, this aggression takes a new form in the West Bank, where life is deliberately turned into hell to impose forced displacement, under the cover of occupation, poverty, and hopelessness.

Comrades,
We see in the Great October Socialist Revolution a living torch that continues to inspire our daily struggles. That Revolution taught us that a conscious and organized working class can overthrow even the most oppressive systems of exploitation and injustice, and build a new society founded on justice, equality, and socialism.

However, after the collapse of the Soviet Union, the global balance of power was destroyed, and the world shifted toward a unipolar order dominated by U.S. imperialism and its allies. The disappearance of the socialist camp deprived the struggling peoples of their international support, making the revolutionary process harder and more complex. Yet the Bolshevik spirit remains alive — beating in the hearts of revolutionaries around the world — and it will rise again, stronger and clearer in purpose.

Comrades,

The global capitalist system today is experiencing a deep and multifaceted crisis — inflation, unemployment, poverty, environmental and humanitarian catastrophes — all of which reflect the historical decay of capitalism.

As history teaches us, the bourgeoisie always tries to escape its crises through wars, whether small or large, in order to divide markets and seize resources. From Korea to Vietnam, from the Middle East to Ukraine and Palestine, the fingerprints of imperialism are everywhere.

And when a global war cannot yet be ignited, the ruling class resorts to nuclear blackmail and economic terrorism to preserve its dominance. The bourgeoisie has shed its mask of “liberal democracy” and revealed its true face — that of the new fascism now spreading across Europe and beyond, justifying repression, racism, and colonial aggression under the false banners of “freedom” and “human rights.”

From this reality, the messages of the October Revolution for our time become clear:

- 1. To build and strengthen a coordinated front among Marxist–Leninist parties, uniting strategy and struggle against global imperialism and capitalism.
- 2. To link the class struggle for workers’ rights with the political and national liberation struggles, for the fight against occupation and exploitation are two inseparable fronts in the same battle against the capitalist system.
- 3. To raise the consciousness and organization of the working masses, guiding them toward the ultimate goal — liberation from capitalist slavery and the construction of a humane, socialist society.

Comrades of the Communist Party of Greece,

We extend our highest appreciation for your principled and internationalist positions, and for your efforts in bringing together the communist parties under the banner of common struggle. We hope that this meeting will be a first step toward the establishment of a permanent coordinating body among revolutionary communist parties, to restore the strength of socialism and renew the power of proletarian internationalism.

In conclusion,

From wounded and resisting Palestine, we affirm that victory is inevitable — as long as the peoples continue to fight, and as long as the banner of October continues to fly high in the sky of freedom.

Glory to the Great October Revolution!

Glory to proletarian internationalism!

Glory to the peoples struggling against imperialism, Zionism, and capitalism!
And may we always remain comrades in struggle and in the same revolutionary path.

Workers of the world, unite!

Palestinian Communist Party

Athens – November 2025